buy. Take along a few copies. And if yours is a printed front page display, attract a page make-up, a lively spread, well arranged and easy to read, another great stride in your paper will have been made. It might also be expedient to give your paper a copy of Scott. The EASTERNER had this experience. It was trying to get the big business firms on without too much success. The student agent showed the Roto. The manager looked and was pleased to learn the subscriber received a copy of the paper. He also took the fact that the magazine carried the name of the firm with it.

will agree that your group read the ads in the dailies; but, their mothers do and they read the teen section. They begin quoting cases from his experience. It seems to you will risk another try.

MONTICELLO HIGH SCHOOL

THIS IS OUR SCHOOL

We entered as Freshman into the new world of "adults", our heads awhirl at our new status. Being a "High Schooler" meant ball games, dances, dates, plays, and the school seemed awe inspiring as we watched "upper classmen." We soon learned these things came in time if we cooperated, studied, participated and genuinely enjoyed working with our teachers, faculty and each other. As Juniors we felt a new dignity but some of the mischief remained. Then Seniors—We learned to pull our own load and sobered as we watched our friends become engaged or plan for college or take a job and start to earn their own way. We sobered as we thought of leaving, as we realized High School days were almost past, the fun and joys we shared, the friends we made, and our ideas of life now formed. It is with mixed emotion we leave our school and the MEMORIES.

WELCOME TO THE PRATT FAMILY

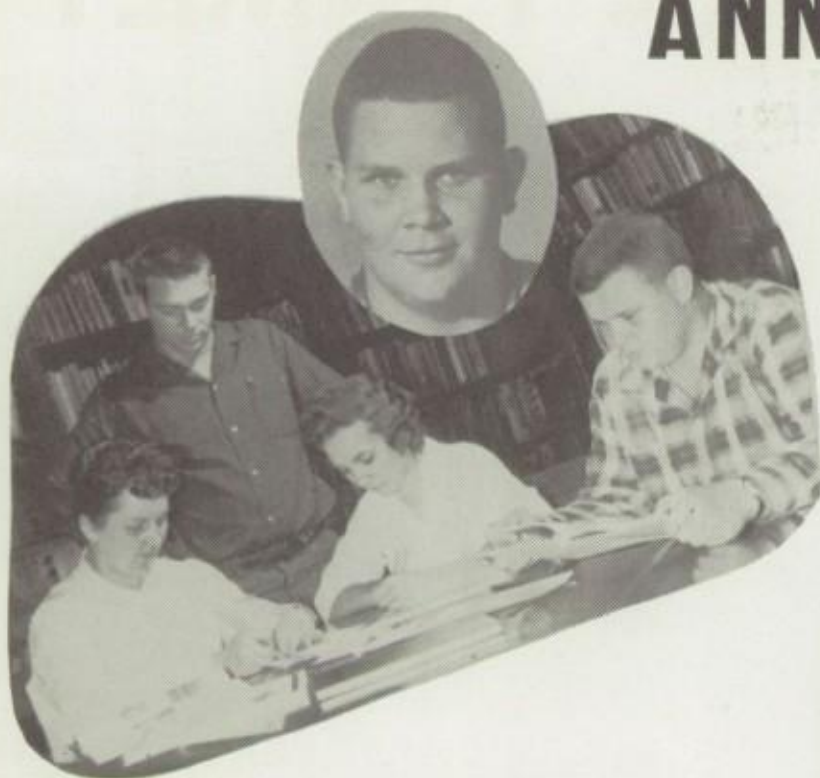

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pratt and children Peggy and Jim at home.

AT SCHOOL

Monticello is happy for the opportunity to welcome Donald Pratt and his family to Monticello and most especially to have him as our new principal. With his fine scholastic record and past interests in his own school activities, he is himself a good example to the students, encouraging those who try to do right and cooperate. We think his influence is already being felt at our high school and has instilled more dignity among the students. Thanks to you Mr. Pratt, and we hope you and your family have a long and happy stay in Monticello.

BEHIND THESE DOORS

This is to introduce you to the people who work behind these doors. You have already met the teachers. So we have first the exalted Seniors. That is what we all strive to be from the start. Next are the Juniors, then Sophomores, and, last but not least, the Freshmen. This year 365 students started high school at Monticello.

Sandy Marquiss and Gary Turner reign at Snowball Dance

PEP RALLY

HOMECOMING HIGHLIGHTS

RALLY

Homecoming festivities began on October 6, at 7:30, with a snake dance, bonfire, and pep rally.

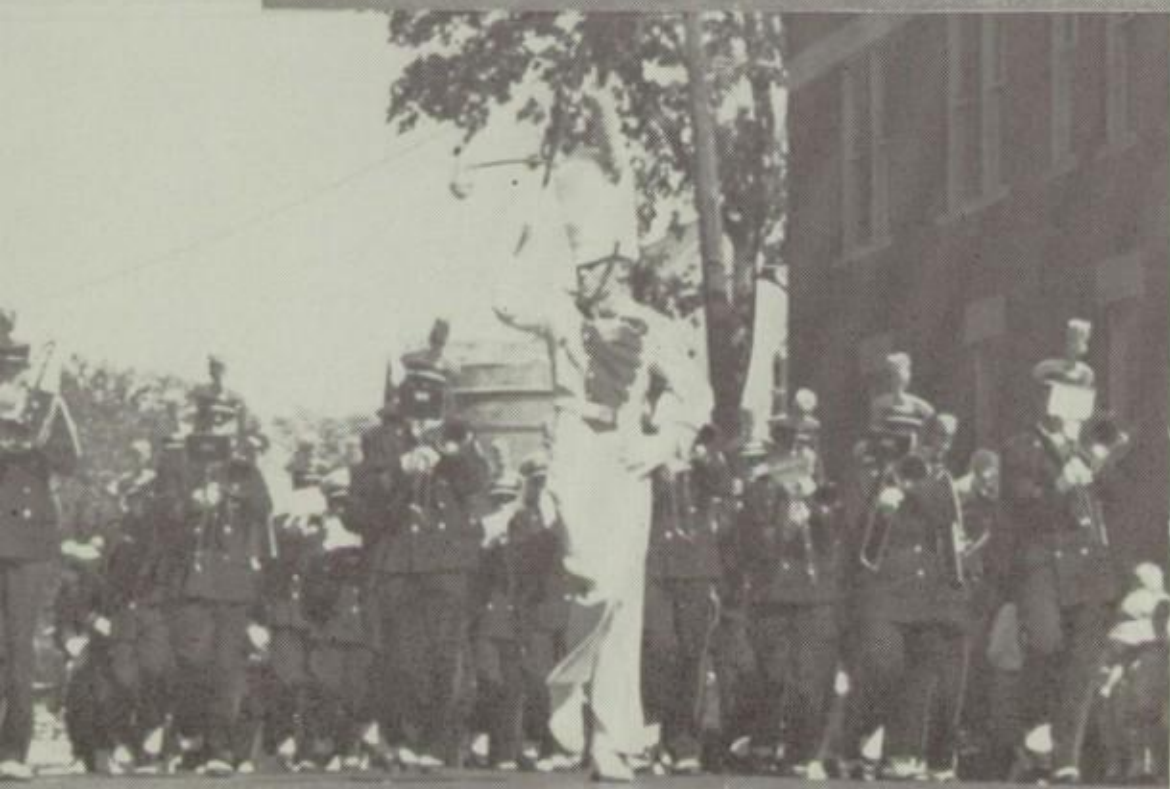

PARADE

As has been the custom of the last four years, Mary Jo Oehmke led the parade carrying the Sages flag.

CHEERS

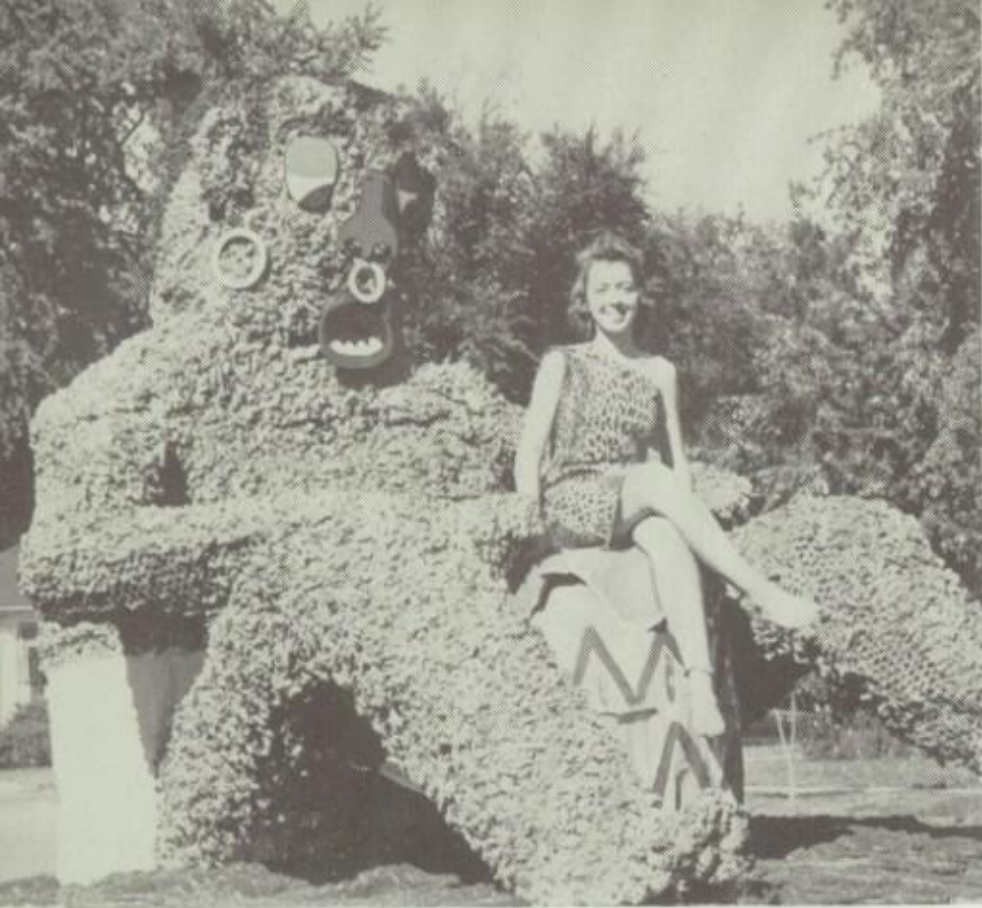

On the square, a short pep session was led by Sandy Marquiss, Lila Robinson, Tammy Miller and Judy Clapper.

BAND

The band did its usual fine job of marching and gave us a preview of what was to come that night at game half-time. Then came the floats.

Compliments of Oehmke's I.G.A.

SAGES ON

The Monticello homecoming festivities began with a snake dance which originated at Gucker's corner. On arrival at the bonfire, Mr. Felts recited his rousing poem, "It's My Night to Holler - Whoopee," and holler we did, led by our enthusiastic cheerleaders. We introduced the queen candidates and class representatives. We heard a word from each member of the team and coaches Gardner and Gadbury encouraged them to do their best to win the Homecoming game. The band played and we cheered loud and long.

Next day came the parade of floats with the Juniors winning first place with an original idea of spray-painting their float brown to make their cannibal natural color. This idea we're sure will be used frequently in the future. Linda Dyson sat attractively on his lap. The G.A.A. girls won the organizations' first place. The football game was a 40 to 6 victory for us which added considerably to the gaiety of the festivities. The theme was — Sages on Safari. Mr. Mula and the art students outdid themselves on decorating the gym for the dance. The girls and their escorts made their entrance out of a lion's mouth onto his red tongue. Bill Oetzel's orchestra settled down among the native tom-toms and a giant cannibal. The queen was Bridget Allman, escorted by Mike Green. The three Senior candidates were Barbara Burnside with escort Tom Miller, Linda Allen with Darrel Hicks, and Leila Secrist with Stewart Brown. All four girls wore floor length white formals with long white gloves. Junior attendant, Linda Dyson, was with Bill Platz. Sophomore, Judy Winder, was with John Whisnant and Freshman, Mary Kay Allman was with Jerry Turner. Flower-girl, Julie Beckhart and crown-bearer, Steve Olsen preceded them. Co-captains were David Brown and Darrell Hicks. The band played until midnight when folks concluded a wonderful but exhausting day.

GAME

MONTICELLO 40 - BRONCOS 6

Homecoming for the Sages. All Senior backs scored once. Bob Long scored twice. Harlan Long scampered 61 on first play from scrimmage. Tom Miller sneaked 3 yards for the second T.D. Darrel Hicks scored from the one. Tom Hall went 26 and Bob Long went 93 yards for the final T. D., a good team victory.

HALF-TIME

The band, directed by Mr. Licocci, put on a fine show of unusual formations at halftime. Just the best looking and best trained band you could hope to see.

WE WON!

Darrel Hicks and Dave Brown were co-captains and Bob Long leading scorer for the game. Happy coaches are Gadbury and Gardner.

WE WON! WE WON!

Whether it be football, basketball, or track, Monticello fans turn out in force. These particular fans are rapturous over the results of the Monticello-Mahomet game at the tourney at Urbana. Monticello made a fine showing. We all like to think our cheers help the team to win and we have a wonderful time for ourselves in the doing. And boys, we appreciate the hours of training put in to give us these games. Maybe you can tell. We hope so.

Wilkinson Lumber Company - Monticello, Illinois

A WORD FROM THE EDITORS

We, your editorial staff, submit this annual with pleasure, hoping you will find inside these pages the events most meaningful to you and through this book, your interest will be kept vital in our high school. We also hope this annual will remain a pleasant reference and reminder in the future of your days at Monticello High.
